LinkUp Breakfast Roundtables $425

LinkUp was established to facilitate face-to-face introductions at a leadership level (owners, department heads, decision-makers) in a small-group setting. This high-impact networking opportunity helps members build relationships, encourage referrals and learn more about each other. LinkUp is open to all members on an "opt in" basis.

- Present a fifteen-minute overview/tour of your business
- Provide recommendations for six to twelve members to be invited
- Choose discussion topic
- Business logo in The Exchange newsletter

Business Seminar Sponsor (limit 1) $1,250

Averaging two hours each, these affordable and informative sessions cover a variety of disciplines. Some are presentations, some are workshops, but all have a goal of building the personal skills of employees at various employment levels. The typically small class size elicits active participation from all, particularly during the question-and-answer period. Attendance varies based on the topic offered.

- Opportunity to introduce speaker and address attendees for two minutes to share information about your business
- Opportunity to provide promotional items at the seminar
- Business logo hyperlinked on event page of the Chamber website
- Business logo in The Exchange newsletter
